

RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

FOIAb3b

Boston -- 25X1A9a [REDACTED] Deputy Director, Security, C.I.A.,

has been selected as one of 160 business executives and government officials from the United States and several foreign countries to participate in the 50th session of the Advanced Management Program of the Harvard University Graduate School of Business Administration, Dean George P. Baker announces.

The 13-week course, oldest and largest resident management development program in the United States, is designed especially to prepare executives in, or approaching, top management positions to exercise full leadership responsibility in an age of unprecedented change and challenge. The 50th session starts September 12 and runs through December 9, 1966.

More than 5,000 executives, ranging in age from their late thirties to their middle fifties, have been graduated from AMP since 1943 when Harvard Business School started the nation's pioneer university program in executive development.

All participants are nominated and sponsored by their companies or governments in conformance with rigorous standards for admission established by Harvard Business School to assure each class represents a cross section of outstanding business leadership in the United States and abroad.

NOTE: We would appreciate receiving a tear sheet
